With Weinert at the Broadway in Brooklyn To-Night.

What hart he fire from Controlling Co. HAY MISKE is to fight ten rounds with Charite Weinert to-night at the Breadway in oklyn. Weinert is trying to come ack to the porttion he lost when Pulton beat him so easily. Charlie a clever boxer, and there was a when he looked about the best of the runners-up. Fulton's jabbing eft gave him a setback that was hard to overcome, and he has been sietly working with the hope of aking his way back to the limemaking his way back to the lime-light.

Miske is one of our busiest young battlers. He gave Carl Morris fifty pounds and a beating last Friday evening. Miske's speed and hard, clean hitting overcame the handleap of bulk. In the last two or three rounds he punched Carl whenever he pleased. The Okiahoma giant's great strength and his well known gameness was all that enabled him to weather the beating that Miske delivered.

delivered.

On his showing with Morris and other big men Miske should have little trouble with Welnert.

ARL MORRIS has been a child of misfortune ever since he came out as the original "white hope." He won three or four fights in the oil well country and came East under the direction of Mr. Ufer, an oil capitalist. At that time Oklahomans thought Carl was directly in line for a fight with Jack Johnson and the title. His first bout in New York was with Jim Flynn, a tough Plynn wore in his left gives beside his fist has never been disclosed. In any case, he used that left on Carl, and he might as well have used a calker's maliet. Carl took the worst beating ever given a man in a New York ring. He took t gamely, always walking in, always refusing to go down when there was every reason in the world for seeking the floor. That fight cost Morris abroken jaw, some teeth, a broken nose, his hope of an immediate rise to the front rank of the heavyweight class and a change to make a mint of money. It gave him a reputation for gameness that will never be forgotten by any one who saw him try to fight. He was citizen of about half his size. What for gameness that will never be forgotten by any one who saw him try to fight. He was game enough to go right on boxing in the town that had seen his downfall, and in the course of a few months he began to make good. Since then he has done fairly well, except in a fight with Gunboat Smith and his most recent match with Fullon, both of which he lest on fouls.

Morris is big, clumsy, lumbering and no boxer. He can do nothing at long range, but has to lean on his man and beat away at him with short punches and uppercuts.

Willard avoids Morris because he thinks Cari is a very rough person, out other fighters take him on. He beats the Morans, Coffeys and some of the other big heavyweights, but finds the little fellows like Gunboat Smith and Miske very annoying. If Willie Laughlin of South Beth-lehem is to fight Mike O'Dowd Thursday evening at the Cler-mont. Willie's manager called us up yesterday to say that as soon as Willie beats O'Dowd he will offer to fight anybody in this wide world and turn his share of the purse over to the Army Ath-letle Fund.

$2,000 CHANGES HANDS WHEN MISS BJURSTEDT DEFEATS BYERS AT TENNIS

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 2 .- Although spotting Eben M. Byers, wealthy business man and formerly national amateur golf champion of the U. R. A., "one half of 15," Miss Molla Hjurstedt, the star tennis player, again scored a victory. There was a side bet of $2,900. The spectators subscribed $2,000 to the Ambulance Fund.

Byers is a fair tennis player, and when the Norwegian appeared here last Friday and Saturday in Red Cross matches he was still smarting under the sting of the defeat administered him by Miss Bjurstedt at Southampton several weeks ago and wanted revenge. so another match was arranged between the pair.

Things looked gloomy for Miss Bjurstedt at the end of the first set, Byers taking it in 6-2. The match was played on grass courts and the showers made it slippery. But Miss Bjurstedt was not a bit perturbed and she got going in the second set, winning 6-2. She also won the third and deciding set, 6-3. Thousands of dollars changed hands as a result of the

HARVARD MAY MEET YALE ON GRIDIRON FOR RED CROSS FUND

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 2.-Harvard and Yale are likely to meet on the gridiron after all this season. It will be for the benefit of the Red Cross. The Crimson Athletic Association will hold a meeting here to-night, at which this matter will be decided.

"Speaking unofficially, I would say Harvard would be glad to face a team from Yale for such a good sause as the Red Cross," said Fred W. Moore, graduate manager of the Harvard Athletic Association. "We have offers for games from military teams at Ayer, Portland and Newport, and will probably be able to make public some definite schedule after our meeting to-
